

TOLPUDDLE MAN by Graham Moore

TOLPUDDLE MAN by Graham Moore

Farewell to my family, it's now I must leave
you,
That far fatal shore in chains we shall see.
Although we are taken, do not be forsaken,
As brothers in Union we shall be free.

Farewell to my family, it's now I must leave
you,
That far fatal shore in chains we shall see.
Although we are taken, do not be forsaken,
As brothers in Union we shall be free.

Chorus

They can bring down our wages, starve all our children,
In chains they can bind us, steal all our land;
They can mock our religion, from our families
divide us,
But they can't break the oath of a Tolpuddle Man.

Chorus

They can bring down our wages, starve all our children,
In chains they can bind us, steal all our land;
They can mock our religion, from our families
divide us,
But they can't break the oath of a Tolpuddle
Man.

To those who rule us, we are the dissenters.
"Do your duty; be thankful; don't complain", we are taught.
For God in His wisdom has divided this kingdom,
For few to have much while so many have naught.

As brothers together, with an oath we will bind us,
The labouring men in all England shall rise !
Though Frampton defamed us, they never will tame us.
Arise men of Britain; we will yet win the prize !
